

Expression of Interest for Presenters RE: Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander HDR Symposium

Nura Gili will be holding a Symposium to showcase the work and research conducted by our Higher Degree Research students at The University of New South Wales.

The Symposium will be:

- Held on Thursday, 27 July 2023, in the evening 6-9pm (tentative TBC)
- Approximately 2 hours long
- Up to four (4) presentations (15 minutes per presentation + 5 min questions)
- Facilitated by a guest speaker
- Light refreshments will be provided
- You will be compensated for your time with a $500 gift voucher per presentation.

There may be 1-2 planned Microsoft Teams and/or face-to-face meetings to coordinate the planning and organising of the Symposium once they have been allocated to presenters.

If you are interested, please complete the following application form, and return to: nuragili@unsw.edu.au

If you have any questions, or require further clarification, please contact: nuragili@unsw.edu.au

Closing date for Expressions of Interest: Friday 2 June, 2023

Application form:

Name of Presenter/s and ZiD
What year of your research are you in? And how long do you have left?
Faculty/School
Topic and presentation title (if known)
Format (please indicate)
	Presenting (your own paper by yourself)
	Co-presenting (with another colleague or student)
Best contact email and phone details:

Please provide a brief abstract on the topic you will be presenting on:

